Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for getting back to me so promptly. I take your point entirely and therefore wish to attend as an interested party and speak should the inspector allow me to. I take it I will be notified when the enquiry is to take place?

Kind regards,
[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your email.

As a formal Rule 6 party, you would be expected to follow the same process as the Council and Appellant – provide witnesses, statements of case, proofs of evidence, and have an advocate who can take your witnesses through examination and re-examination, as well as cross-examination of the other side's witnesses. Because a Rule 6 party is effectively a main party, you would also be able to make applications for costs and have applications for costs made against you for unreasonable behaviour.

You may wish to be aware that you don't need to have formal Rule 6 party status to participate at an inquiry. You can take part as an interested party, where you are welcome to attend the inquiry and speak at the discretion of the Inspector.

Please see our Rule 6 guidance for further information -

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/apply-for-rule-6-status-on-a-planning-appeal-or-called-in-application/guide-to-rule-6-for-interested-parties-involved-in-an-inquiry-planning-appeals-and-called-in-applications>

If you wish to proceed with Rule 6 status, please confirm by return. Please note, it is unusual for Rule 6 status to be granted to individuals.

Kind regards
Holly

Dear [REDACTED],

My name is [REDACTED] and at the time this application was initially heard by Erewash Borough Council planning committee, I was one of the Borough Councillors representing the Kirk Hallam and Stanton By Dale Ward of Erewash Borough Council, I spoke against it in my capacity as a Ward Councillor. At that particular time I was not a member of the planning committee. I retired from the Council on 4th of May 2023.

I wish to apply for rule 6 status please so I can reiterate my earlier comments and add further ones against this application subsequently going ahead. I hope I am permitted to use my initial comments as my statement of case please?

Please see initial comments attached?

Yours sincerely
[REDACTED]
